

Strategic Planning & Management Facilitation Assessment

	-1- Yes definitely	-2- I'm not sure	-3- No, not really
1. Alignment: Is everyone in your organization, in particular, your management team aligned on the strategic goals of the organization? Alignment means that they are clear, in agreement, and working on execution.
2. Measurement: Is the definition of success with regards to the strategic goals clear to everyone? Are there measures in place to ensure clarity, tracking of success, and the need to change course when necessary?
3. Satisfaction with execution: Are you satisfied with the progress your team is making on the goals? Are they executing?
4. Satisfaction with your management team: Are you satisfied with your team? In particular, are they working to their potential? Are they collaborating? Are you receiving leverage through them or are you more involved than you think you should be?
5. Meeting management: Do you feel that your management team meetings are effective? Does your team?
6.. Organizational alignment: Is your organization supporting the strategic goals or do you feel as if you are having an uphill battle?
7. Your own clarity: Are you comfortable with the direction you have set for your company? Do you have a clear plan for at least one year? Do you have a clear direction for the next three?
8. Governance: Are you happy with the tools and processes you are using to manage the execution of your strategy? Are they driving the results you want?
